Act 250 Board:

I attended the TRORC meeting in Bradford last week and it seemed quite clear that your current land use designations need to be studied and discussed further. Kevin Geiger attempted to shut down at least one speaker (a Mr. Harrington?) when he voiced some serious opposition to the plan. Geiger was not successful, but that one episode spoke volumes to me. It reeks of voter suppression and an attitude of "we know what's best for you." People need to be heard, not dictated to.

If you don't want more anger from landowners going forward, you might want to change your approach.

Sincerely,

Marc McKee
